

THE EVENING BULLETIN

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1885.

Trains will be running on the Kentucky Union Railroad next week.

GENERAL GRANT is doing very well, and only one of his physicians has gone abroad.

HON. JOHN G. CARLISLE says: "I am satisfied the President is doing the very best he can under the circumstances."

The proposition to make a subscription to the Cincinnati and Nashville railroad was defeated in Lincoln County by a majority of 133.

NEW HAMPSHIRE will elect a Senator next month. Blaine and Chandler are the prominent candidates and a spirited contest is expected.

MARK JARMAN, the colored candidate for the Legislature in Lincoln County, is on the stump filing proof of his ability to represent the county properly.

THE Interior Journal announces that the old version of the Bible is good enough for that office, and that it will continue to use it with usual regularity and industry.

THREE Mormons have been convicted and given full sentence at Utah for Polygamy. Justice ought not to stop here. Three times three should be convicted daily until the evil is wiped out.

THE news from the Vinson & Co. oil well, on Blaine Creek, Lawrence County, is very encouraging and the public now fully share in the opinion of the company that the well will prove a great success.

SENATOR BLACKBURN denies the sensational report of his interview with the President. He says: "I have no quarrel with the President nor with the administration. I trust and believe that it has no better friend nor supporter than I in all that is right."

THERE is no occasion for impatience. Postmaster General Vilas is making new appointments in his department at the rate of one hundred a day. When his assistant, Hay, gets well, and is able to lend a hand to the work of decapitation, the heads will fly in the most cheerful and encouraging manner.

SAYS the Cincinnati Times-Star. Postmaster Pearson's case was evidently intended to be an exception. Since the Pearson appointment the closest observers have not been able to discover any sign of a purpose on the part of Cleveland to consult the wishes of Mugwumps concerning the distribution of the offices.

It is astonishing that when Republican office holders are removed they really think they have good reason to make a fuss about it, as if they had been very badly used. Such an impression is clearly a mixture of idiosyncrasy and impudence. There is the case of Palmer, who was removed from the Chicago post-office. His friends speak of him as having been subjected to gross injustice and oppression, and call the President a Czar. Do they think that the offices are to be everlastingly their property?

MR. CARLISLE from all accounts seems to enjoy the confidence of the President and is in very close relations with the administration. A Washington despatch says: It is a fact not generally known that his visit here is because the President wanted to consult him in regard to Kentucky matters, and that intimations had been made to him that the administration would be pleased to hear from him when he wanted anything. The favor thus shown is a high and merited compliment to this distinguished Democrat.

THE total number of immigrants who arrived in the United States during April was 50,943, of whom 18,101 were from Germany, 8,076 from Ireland and 4,681 from England and Wales. The statistics for the ten months which ended April 30th, show that the German emigration is about one-third of the total. The arrivals from Germany were 89,013; from England and Wales, 38,572; from Ireland, 32,559, and from the Dominion of Canada, 29,343. The total emigration in the ten months amounted to 275,468; for the same period one year previous it was 371,625, showing a falling off of 66,157.

THE new Prohibitory law which the Republicans of Kansas fondly hoped was to put a stop to all beer and liquor business in the State has been declared unconstitutional. The law clothed the County Attorneys with unlimited power over witnesses and allowed them the heavy fee of $25 on each count on the conviction of a beer or liquor seller. The Court decides that a law which gives a prosecuting officer judicial powers and tempts him to unusual virulence of prosecution by rewards for conviction is not only opposed to the Constitution but to justice. Gov. Martin, who signed the law, pointed out its unconstitutionality while yet giving it his approval.

A Murderous Attack.

KINGSTON, N. Y., May 22.—Alanson Slater, of Logtown, is lying half dead at his home from the effects of a murderous assault by an unknown man. Logtown is a village in this county remote from railroad and telegraphic communication. A tall, heavy man knocked at the door of Slater's house, and when he came to the window the man told him that his (Slater's) son was badly hurt on the canal. He immediately dressed himself and came down stairs. When he opened the door the man dealt him two heavy blows on the head with a hatchet. The blood poured down into Slater's eyes, blinding him, but he rushed at his assailant and a terrible struggle ensued. Finally Slater became exhausted from loss of blood and sank unconscious to the earth. The mysterious assailant then fled and no clue has yet been found.

The Same Old Story.

NEW YORK, May 22.—Experts have been busy for a week in going over the accounts of the Union National bank to determine the exact amount of the embezzlement of its receiving teller, John A. Van Gelder, who ran away on March 8 last. The exact amount of money taken is $38,000. Van Gelder's peculations extended over eleven years. He entered the bank in 1863, when he was twenty years old, and was promoted through various grades, until he was made teller at $3,500 a year. It is supposed he spent the money in gambling. Nothing whatever has been heard of him since he went away. His wife and two daughters are in quite destitute circumstances.

Imprisoned Mormons.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 22.—There is much excitement at Elizabethton over the imprisonment of Christian and Gainer, the Mormon elders, on the charge of preaching Polygamy. The elders made many converts in that section last year before the passage of the anti-Polygamy law, and their converts state that they will protect them at all hazards. Senator Simmerly's father has been converted, and the former is working up public sentiment against the Mormons. The sheriff refuses to release the prisoners, and the governor's attention has been called to the matter.

Archbishop Alemany's Departure.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—A number of leading citizens have waited on Archbishop Alemany and presented him with a purse of $10,000 prior to his departure from San Francisco. The clergy of this diocese also presented him with a purse of $6,500. The archbishop has been on the Pacific coast thirty-three years, and is greatly beloved. He leaves for Rome on Sunday next. Archbishop Rogerian, lately of Chicago, will succeed Archbishop Alemany.

The Negro Fling.

BALTIMORE, May 22.—Howard Cooper, the negro who was convicted of committing a rape on Katie Gray was sentenced by the judge to be hanged at such time as the governor may designate. The case will be carried to the court of appeals.
